FRANKTOWN CHURCH ACTIVITIES

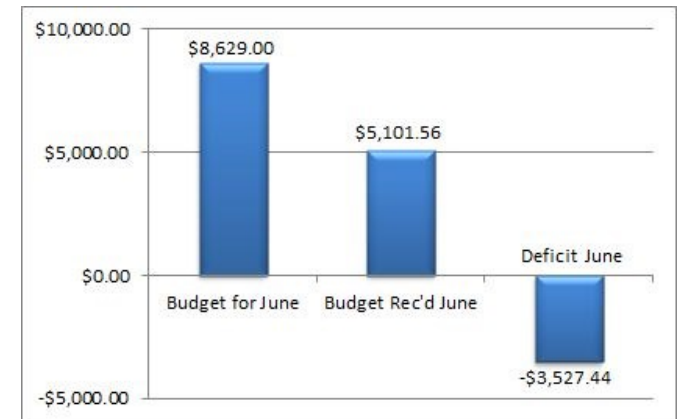

David Asscherick—Mark your calendars for our special guest, David Asscherick. He will be preaching on July 11, Sabbath Worship and Sabbath afternoon after a potluck lunch. Please start inviting friends and neighbors to attend. Please help us to have enough food for our guests and bring two dishes of the same entrée so we can have two serving tables.

Vacation Bible School—VBS is just 16 days away starting on Monday, July 20 at 9:00 am. It will run Monday through Friday, 9:00 am to 12:00 pm. Kids will learn about God in his tropical creation with songs, crafts, games and snacks! Children ages 4-12 years can register. To register, please email wendy@franktownsda.org.

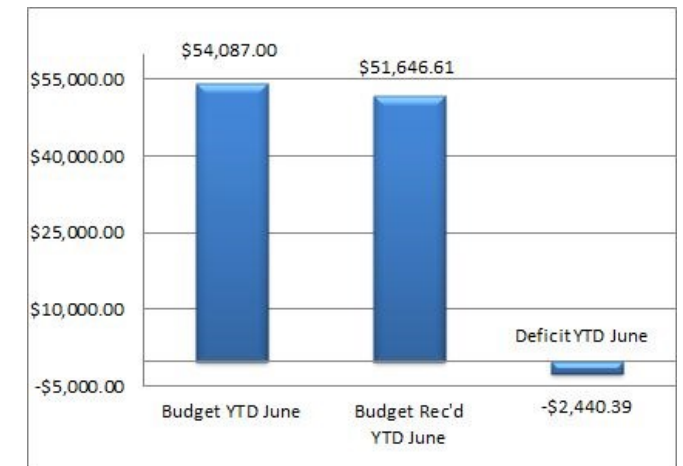

Prayer Meeting—If you've never attended prayer meeting before, I would like to challenge you to come join us on Wednesday nights at 6:30! We have a great group that I know you would enjoy studying with. We spend time in prayer and study and I know that I am blessed by the discussions and perspectives within the group. Clear your Wednesday evening schedule and come out to Prayer Meeting!

General Conference—Our world church representatives and members began the General Conference meetings on Thursday, and those meetings will span a 12-day period. Reports are given from all of the world divisions, and there are nominations and votes on many things, including leadership positions and policy. If you have never visited a GC session, it is truly inspiring to see people from all over the world who are passionate about sharing the message of Jesus in their area. Please join me in praying that God guides our leadership during this General Conference session in San Antonio, Texas.
